Following extensive negotiations, a distribution agreement has been signed providing Wavelink Communications with Australian and New Zealand distribution rights for DeTeWe's range of business and personal communication systems.

DeTeWe AG (www.detewe.de), as part of the Gebrueder Roechling group of companies, is one of Germany's leading telecommunications suppliers. With annual turnover exceeding A$700m, DeTeWe is the largest subsidiary of Gebrueder Roechling (annual turnover A$9 Billion).

According to Rubin, "With telephone systems that bring together voice, DECT cordless, cordless data, the internet, and unified messaging under a single umbrella, Wavelink sees the DeTeWe family of products as being one of the biggest leaps forward in technology to be brought to the Australian market in several years."
